

Canada China Business Excellence Awards

CELEBRATING BILATERAL BUSINESS SUCCESS

VI. 40th Anniversary Honourees

CCBC is a business council with organizational members, rather than individuals, so typically our awards recognize companies or institutions. But the success of Canada in its economic relationship with China is due to many hardworking executives, academics, and officials from both countries over the last 40 years. For CCBC's 40th Anniversary, we offer a one-time category to recognize up to five individuals who have made a difference.

The 40th Anniversary Honourees are individuals who, via their work in business, government, academia, or civil society, have made significant contributions to Canada-China relations and to economic engagement between our countries. We will recognize five such individuals at the awards ceremony.

Criteria

This award category is open to individuals who are nominated by others. Nominated individuals must be living at the time of nomination.

Nomination Package should include:

- Executive Summary - Why should this individual be recognized?
(250 words, Times New Roman size 12, double-spaced)
- In the body of the package, include and address the following:
(No more than 16 pages, Times New Roman size 12, double-spaced)
 - Describe the individual's experience with Canada and China.
 - What were the accomplishments for which the individual should be recognized?
 - How did this individual's behavior make him or her outstanding among those engaging in Canada-China economic relations?
 - How did this individual help to expand bilateral engagement or to enable more people to participate in the Canada-China commercial relationship?
- Photos (not required): If available, please send digital versions of historical photos that support the application, primarily for potential use at the awards ceremony.
